Polk County, Iowa Saves Taxpayers Money with Unisyn OpenElect® System
Iowa's largest county partners with RBM Consulting and Unisyn to streamline voting services

Chicago, IL - March 18, 2015 - RBM Consulting, a leading election solutions and managed service provider, announced today it has been selected by Polk County, Iowa to replace the county's existing election system. RBM's service and Unisyn's OpenElect® Voting System will provide Polk County's 272,000+ registered voters and 177 precincts with the most reliable and secure voting experience.

"After careful due diligence we are excited to announce that we have partnered with RBM and Unisyn Voting Solutions to implement the state-of-the-art OpenElect® Suite of products for Polk County," said Jamie Fitzgerald, Polk County Auditor and Commissioner of Elections. "RBM has earned Polk County's election business through hard work, honesty and a dedication to making our election process the best possible for our citizens. RBM has saved our taxpayers money by streamlining our ballot printing and performing service on our equipment. I look forward to teaming with them to provide all of our election needs for many years to come."

Polk County purchased RBM Unisyn products OpenElect® Voting Optical Scan (OVO) for precinct tabulation and OpenElect® Voting Interface (OVI) for ADA and early voting. In addition, the county will be using OpenElect® Voting Central Scan (OVCS) for absentee tabulation and OpenElect® Central Suite (OCS) for election programming and tabulation.

"We are truly excited about adding Polk County, Iowa, to the RBM/Unisyn customer base," said Dan Brennan, Managing Partner of RBM Consulting. "We look forward to delivering the best of election systems and services to our newest customer."

Polk County also contracts other election services through RBM including state-of-the-art in house printing, maintenance and election support.

"We are very excited to receive this new order from Polk County through our partner RBM," said Jeff Johnson, Unisyn President. "Unisyn's OpenElect® products, together with the RBM services and support, will provide Polk County with a voting system that will deliver transparency, security and reliability for their voting public for years to come."

The RBM and Unisyn partnership delivers election products and services tailored to fit all jurisdictions' election requirements. The combined experience of the two companies brings counties extensive election experience, a highly-knowledgeable and trained staff, and full-service and support.
